Hurry Last chance

Grandview Estate offers its residents easy walking access to the historic and tree lined High street where you will find a host of cafes and restaurants, art and antique stores, and retail offerings. All set amongst a number of enchanting 19th century buildings. As Lancefield is quickly becoming a popular location for wine growers, many excellent cellar doors have also been popping up in recent times.

For the everyday needs of your family, Grandview estate is an easy commute to a variety of educational, medical and other social services. A 15 minute drive to Clarkefield provides a direct train service to the Melbourne CBD.
